Hi Michele

Please find below the long awaited reference from our wedding. Apologies again for the delay. I hope you dont think it is too much. I have written only what we truly feel and what guests honesly said.

Michele made our wedding a day to remember! She is passionate about music which shows in the comprehensive and committed work she does. From the first phone call till the last song at the reception Michele was full of energy and ideas about the music. Her range of knowledge and library of music is one to be envied and I'm sure, rivalled.

Not knowing exactly what we wanted at our wedding would have possibly caused another DJ to think twice about working with us but Michele's confidence in knowing what music went well with the occasion was a god send and I knew we were in safe hands. Regardless of our lack of guidance, Michele knew just what to do.

We had a wide age group attend our wedding from little children to the more mature crowd and each and every person had only good things to say about Michele and how much they enjoyed the music of the evening. The dance floor always had someone dancing at some stage or another almost the whole night.

I was told by a guest that the reason she thought Michele was fantastic was that, firstly, she played the requested music almost as soon as it was requested but secondly, that she asked the reason the song was chosen. This would be included in the dedication Michele would send out. This little bit of insight made the guests request more meaningful and therefore more special when the song got played.

Michele is a stunning, thoughtful person and a passionate and gifted DJ and I will always recommend her to others, no questions asked. As for my next event, whatever it may be, I will definitely be calling Michele!!
